

In-flight Meal

飛機餐

‘Ladies and gentlemen, this is your captain speaking. We are currently cruising at an altitude of 35,000 feet. The cabin crew will come around in about 10 minutes with dinner. Sit back, and enjoy the flight. Thank you.’

In September, the grade three and four students learned how to order both in-flight meals and drinks.

They told the teacher that ordering food is something they always look forward to when traveling on an airplane.

‘I would like a chicken sandwich, please.’

‘Excuse me, may I ask if you requested vegetarian meals for this flight?’

Besides ordering food from the menu, the students experienced several situations such as dealing with a passenger who was allergic to peanut butter. They had to come up with some ideas to solve the problem.

After learning the topic ‘in-flight meal’, all the students said that they would like to order food for their family members when traveling on an airplane next time!

「各位先生、女士，這裡是機長廣播。本班機目前的飛行高度三萬五千英呎，機組人員將會在十分鐘後開始提供餐飲服務，請您就座，並享受這趟旅程，謝謝您。」

在九月，三、四年級的學生體驗如何在飛機上點餐。孩子們紛紛表示，每次和家人搭飛機出國時，最期待的就是向空服人員點餐了。

「我想要一份雞肉三明治，謝謝。」

「請問您今日的餐點是素食餐嗎？」

除了基本的機上點餐流程外，孩子們更體驗了數種不同的情境，例如當乘客提出「不好意思，我對花生醬過敏。」時，孩子想辦法能如何解決乘客的問題。

經過這次的課程，孩子們都期待下回搭飛機出國時，要替家人點餐呢！
